

CODE OF PRACTICE CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that all Health Care Risk Waste (HCRW) collected from the premises of

Disciples Ink Tattoo – Durbanville Studio

will be disposed of in accordance with the company's strict code of practice to eliminate health risks as a result of improper handling of bio-hazardous material.

Compass Medical Waste Services (Pty) Ltd undertakes to:

- Supply self-sealing durable plastic 'sharps' containers, specibins and polyethylene lined fibre board boxes/ reusable containers for the secure containment and disposal of the health care risk waste.
- Collect and transport the waste in locked, insulated vehicles to Compass Medical Waste Services' autoclave treatment plant which is duly licensed by the relevant regulatory authority.
- Safely treat and dispose of this bio-hazardous waste, utilising modern techniques and environmentally sustainable technology.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Ian du Randt', written over a light grey dotted background.

Ian du Randt
Managing Director

25 February 2020

Date